EXAMINATION OF PENALE GRANMAN SCHOOL Examination of Frinal Egramman School. We were very much pleased and dilied yesterday steronous by visiting the closing examination of the Frinale Grammar School, of which Miss Mary Middleton is the Friscipal. This school is located at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Trentieth street, in the First ward. There was a large number of the parents of the children present, as also Trustees Wight, Ellis, Miller, Morsell and Wilson, Treasurer Seasford, and Secretary Dayton. We also noticed Mesers. Z. and A. C. Richards, S. J. Thompson from the city schools, and Messey. A. Hyde and Mr. Magee of the Board of Guardiana of Public Schools of Georgetown, together with Mrs. Amades, Misses Lowe, Ramsey, Alies, Triplett, and a number of the primary school teachers.

The pupils were examined thoroughly in music by Mr. Wight, and in Reading, Spelling, Dictation, Geography, Grammer and Mental and Fractical Arithmetic by Messrs. Morsell, Z. Richards and S. J. Thompson. For want of time, the scholars were not examined in Familiar Science, Philosophy and History. The examinations were very thorough. not examined in Familiar Science, Philosophy and Mistory. The examinations were very tholough, and the gantiemen expressed themselves highly pleased. A number of compositions were read, of which we may mention the following: "Why do Gentlemen Smoke!" written and read by Miss Molile Lambdin; "Life," by Miss M. Allen; "Ac-tion," by Miss Jessie Middleton; and "The Close of a Scholastic Year," by Miss Adele Tait, which

The enseries were interspersed with songs and choruses by the pupils, chief among which was a duest by the Sience Partello, "Gentig sighs the beace," and a quarietie and cheeve, "Hail, Storn of Life." This piece, which was very well sung, it dedicated to the pupils of the Female Grammar School by Mr. A. Hyde, by whom it was composed. At the close of the casmination, which coupled fully seven hours, Mr. Wight complimented the young ladies on their modest appearance and good behavior, and also for passing their examination so creditably to themselves and their examination so creditably to themselves and their examination so creditably to themselves and their examination so creditably to the served and their examination so treditably to the served and their examination of restrictions are we have passed for some time. Miss Middleton is an able and well-tried teacher, and certainly deserves a great deal of credit for the authibition of yesterday. She and her pupits had the school-room very teatefully decorated with vergreens for the examine. We understand that the publicing is which the school has been held it supported the southeasted property formerly owned by W. W. Cottoran, of this city. That gentleman has given the building, reat free, for the past four years, for the use of the public schools.
